Scripture Lesson

Text: - 1 Cor 11: 23.

Subj. - Why statement "the same night - which he was betrayed" - Why not some other incident. Paul sets fixing a date - pointing out a "Contrast." - Have here a picture of Christ. -

I. Contrast of Grace with Sin.

1. Betrayal not a single act - a series of thoughts - resolves - decisions
2. Attitude of Christ. - While hand of betrayer is in dish with him he sets forth new sacrament.
3. All - time of darkness when grace finds its best opportunity.

II. Faithfulness with Treachery

1. Last night - joy & sorrow.
2. Darkest was treachery of Judas
3. Our attitude toward traitors.

III. Love with Hate.

1. Jesus loved them to end.
2. Unconditional love of Jesus.
  1. Hoses.

3. Jesus tried to convert Judas by love at that last hour.

4. Jesus' love had been baffled before - Rich rulers - Jerusalem -

Lords suffer a place for being troubled souls - because it was given to love, <sup>right</sup> when love was baffled by hate. <sup>1. To</sup>

We should approach Lords table with inward questionings.

Sins stand out scarlet against white cloth of Lords Table. 'If any man eat & drink unworthily he eateth & drinketh damnation to his own soul'!

Come with sincere desire to be true, with unreserved confession of sin, weakness, need, & fixed purpose to be loyal to Christ we need not fear.
