Text:-

Sub:- We have a marvellous God. He is deeply and practically interested in us. He has made us for himself. He has made us so we are incomplete and undone without him. He has made us so we are completely satisfied with him, once we find him. The writer of sacred song voiced this when he sang "Take the world and give me Jesus; all its joys are but a name".

Now even though we are incomplete without him, and undone, and though we are completely satisfied with him, once we find him, we never seek God, without he seeks us first. He calls us. How marvellous that he does.

"He called me long before I heard,

Before my sinful heart was stirred."

But when I took him at his word
Forgiven, he lifted me.

I. He Called me By.

God's first call to men is to repentance.

4. A soul hunger which left a cry in my heart. - Deep sense of need. -
By a dissatisfaction with worldly pleasures of life.

II. He calls men.

A. By His Providential Dealings.

1. Sickness -
2. Sorrow +

B. - By Revelation of His Holiness.

1. Isaiah called thus.
2. The holiness of God sets sin out in contrast. There is the sense of being undone - unclean -

III. He Calls men By.

1. Preaching of word.
Faith cometh by hearing
hearing by the word of God.
I had conviction that many would be converted if they would just come to hear word of God. Word of God reveals to men the fact that they are sinners, and lost. That if a man is without God he is without hope.

By faithful presentation of truth of Cross. Jesus died for our sins.

Come:- God is calling you. He is calling you. Be assured that he is, if you are unawakened.
Will you hear his call tonight?
Will you say yes to him now?
