The Dark Side in God's Face:
"Jesus moved with Compassion"

Scripture Lesson - Psalm 96

Texts - Exodus 34:6-7

Mark 6: 34 - "Jesus was moved with Compassion".

Sub: - Compassion is a glorious moral quality. We are easily moved by it. Sometimes, miseries of fear, helplessness, suffering, victims of war, dumb animals suffering all call forth our compassion. We admire this quality in our fellow men. We seek for it, with eager hearts, in God. Yes, so eager are we to see it in God that we have declared him to be infinite pity, compassion.
But God's infinite compassion will be say, "by no means clear the guilty." -

Look at record of sacred history. - Eden,
"The Deluge", "Sodom + Gomorrah", Jerusalem,

In physical world. - man born blind - Broken bodies of children because of sins of parents.

Profusely teaching of Jesus - outer darkness - a shut door - everlasting punishment. -

I. Infinite Justice of God.

1. All men seek justice; one of most deeply rooted longings of the heart.
2. Justice is a nobler attribute than an easy generosity - mercy cannot be exercised at the lack of justice. God is to just to do what our sin-excusing hearts might do.
3. God's justice and our treatment of Christ.

II. "God's Wrath against Sin"

1. Grieved love, and stern anger against the sin that grieved heart of love.
2. Human anger against sin,
can image wrath of God.

III. God's Desire for Holiness.

1. Angel at Eden's gate not only an angel of vengeance - guardian of a holy place.
2. Flood did not only punish the guilty - they also showed love for a new people of God.
3. Visits sins of parents upon children because of desire for holiness.

IV. God is <sup>stirred</sup> moved not with suffering But with sin.

1. "He was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our
