I. It is Work of Holy Spirit to Show Us What we are & Can Be.

1. God is faithful. He reveals himself to every man. "There is a light that lighteth every man that cometh into the world." Jn. 1:9

He shows you what you are & what you can be. God holds us responsible not for what we were, or are, but for what we can be. It is by God's offers & by our opportunities that we shall be judged & condemned.

1. Reveals to sinner what he can be

2. Reveals to Christian what he may be.
no Co-ercion.

The Holy Spirit pleads with us, prompts us, reveals things to us. - but he never forces

Int:- Much is said in God's word of work and place of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the revealer of Christ - the one who convinces & convicts of sin - the one that endued with power - the one who guides into all truth. My message tonight is to sinner and saint, for Holy Spirit strives with each. It is imperative that for our own highest good we allow him full sway, and "Quench not the Spirit." It is particularly concerned tonight about the work of Holy Spirit as it relates to revealing to us what kind of folks we are.

Have you felt the gentle, sweet, gracious
working of the Holy Spirit?
Has he convicted you of sin? Has he made you to feel condemned? Has
he showed you what you
are, what you can be?

"Grieve not the Spirit."

How may we grieve the Spirit? Fall under 3 heads

1. Neglecting to do what he reveals to us. This is a sure way to be lost - neglect - "How shall we <sup>escape</sup>
if we neglect so great salvation."
Fail to act - just not do it. -
Not rebel - but just neglect -
just a passive indifference.
