Text: These words were spoken certain Greeks. It is a request. They desired to see Jesus in flesh. Their motives for seeing him we do not know. Perhaps it was curiosity.
We have no record of what followed.
We do not know whether they saw Jesus, but we do know that they desired to see him. I am very sure that many people today desire to see Jesus. They can see him only as you and I reveal him to them. We who are the professed followers of Christ must reveal him to the world. We must make it possible for them to see Jesus in our lives. We must present Jesus to world so it will be attracted by him. Yes it will be attracted if we really present to them the Christ.

How can we show Jesus to the world? By revealing to them

I Love of Jesus

1. His kingdom founded on love alone.
2. Love the greatest force for good in the world. Wins men to Christ.
3. What men everywhere desire.
4. What world looks for in Christ's followers.
5. No matter what else we may be able to show, if we have not love, 1 Cor. 13

II Patience of Jesus

1. Patience means "uncomplaining endurance"
- 2.

Handwritten notes on the left margin, including "Monday 7/9/19" and "Sulphur Sands Beach Sept. 21/20".

2. Jesus never complained of His hardships, troubles & seeming defeats. He was always firm in hope

3. An impatient Christian will fail to win men to Christ, but the one who is patient in tribulation and always rejoicing will never fail to lead men to the cleansing fountain.

Compassion

III. Tenderness of Jesus

1. Jesus was tender and compassionate and never indulged in harsh words.
2. He won men by his tender compassion.
3. We will draw men to Him if we demonstrate the kind, gentle, tender spirit of Jesus in our daily contact with humanity.
4. We should try to cultivate a tender, voice, full of charm & beauty.

IV. Forgiveness of Jesus

1. An unforgiving spirit is unlike Christ.
2. We must not forgive only those who forgive us, but those who do not.
3. A Christian should not wait for some one to forgive them but be the first to forgive.
4. Forgive our enemies. We say it is hard, and if you knew how he treated me you would feel different. Listen, Jesus forgave those who nailed Him to the Cross & him who betrayed Him.

V. Purity of Jesus

1. Jesus lived a pure, holy life above reproach.
2. We must live clean & pure.
3. Cleanse ourselves from everything which would tend to lead men to doubt the genuineness of our Christianity.
